Dublin, May 7.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

Truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings that ariſe from the good Harmony, mutual Confidence and Affection of your Majeſty's Subjects of theſe Kingdoms, and full of Gratitude for the Protection and Support we have at all Times received from the Crown of Great Britain, on the Continuance of which our very Being depends, we ſhall on all Occaſions exert our utmoſt Endeavours to cultivate the ſame good Underſtanding, and merit the like Support and Protection.

We further beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that any Attempts to create Jealouſies between your Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, or to diſunite their Affections, can only proceed from the ſelfiſh and ambitious Views of deſigning Men, who have an Intereſt ſeparate and diſtinct from that of your Majeſty and of your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, ever ready and determined to maintain and ſupport, to the utmoſt of their Power, the Honour and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown and Government, and the united Intereſts of both your Kingdoms, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes,

Edw. Sterling, Henry Alcock, } Cler, Com, Dom,

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty,

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled,

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, think it our Duty, before an End is put to this Seſſion, to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, our ſincere and grateful Senſe of the Obligations we are under to your Grace, for your moſt prudent and juſt Adminiſtration.

The long uninterrupted Courſe of Favour which your Grace has enjoyed, under the beſt of Kings, with unblemiſhed Honour and Reputation, preſerved through the Exerciſe of the ſeveral Offices of the higheſt Truſt and Importance, which your Grace has ſo worthily and ſo eminently filled, will tranſmit your Name to Poſterity in the moſt amiable Light, and will remain a ſtartling Proof, that thoſe Virtues, which dignify a private Life, are the ſureſt Guards in the Difficulties of Publick Buſineſs, and the trueſt Ornaments of the moſt exalted Stations.

Your Grace's exact and extenſive Knowledge of the State of this Kingdom, and your Inclination to promote its true Intereſt, manifeſted in your former Government, made your Return to us the moſt acceptable Pledge of His Majeſty's continued Favour to a dutiful and loyal People; and our moſt promiſing Expectations have been fully anſwered by your Grace's conſtant Care and Attention to every Thing that could conduce to the Proſperity of this Kingdom, and by your Supporting the Dignity and due Authority of the Crown in ſuch a Manner,

Manner, as to ſhew, at the ſame Time, the ſtricteſt Regard to the Liberties of the People.

We ſhould be wanting in Gratitude and a juſt Confidence in your Grace, if we could doubt of your repreſenting our Duty and Affection to His Majeſty in the trueſt and moſt favourable Light: And we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves, and to our Country, did we not earneſtly wiſh, that your Grace may long continue to preſide over us. We beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we ſhall be always ready to contribute every Thing in our Power to your Eaſe and Honour, and to the Support of your Government, being firmly perſuaded, that your Grace's many perſonal Virtues, and the real Benefits of your Adminiſtration will be ſo ſenſibly felt, and make ſo deep and ſo laſting an Impreſſion, that your Grace cannot fail to be poſſeſſed of the univerſal Affections and Eſteem of all His Majeſty's faithful Subjects in this Kingdom.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler' Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Return your Lordſhips my ſincere Thanks for this very obliging and affectionate Addreſs. The Approbation, which you expreſs of my Conduct, gives me the higheſt Satisfaction. I ſhall endeavour to preſerve your good Opinion and Eſteem, by making the true Intereſt of this Country the chief Object of my Adminiſtration. I ſhall with Pleaſure repreſent to His Majeſty, that your Duty and Loyalty deſerve the Continuance of His Majeſty's Favour and Protection.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Grace the Thanks of this Houſe for your wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration, and for your conſtant Care for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

The Chearfulneſs and Unanimity with which the Supplies demanded from the Throne have been granted this Seſſion of Parliament, not only demonſtrate the Duty and Loyalty of the Houſe of Commons to his Majeſty, and their firm Attachment to his Government and the true Intereſt of their Country, but clearly ſhew their Reſpect to your Grace's Perſon, and their Inclination to make your Adminiſtration eaſy and honourable.

Your Grace is from long Experience ſo well acquainted with the truly loyal Sentiments of his Majeſty's faithful Commons, that when we conſider your Grace's Candour, and the high Truſt veſted in you, we cannot entertain the leaſt Doubt but that your Grace will, upon your Return into the Royal Preſence, repreſent his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of this Kingdom as inviolably and unalterably attached to his Sacred Perſon, and the Intereſts of his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, and that your Grace will aſſure his Majeſty, as we are fully ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under his moſt auſpicious Reign, that we ſhall upon all Occaſions endeavour to deſerve the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

Edw. Sterling, Henry Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE extraordinary Length of your Attendance, and the advanced Season of the Year, will, I am perswaded, make it as agreeable to you, as it must be advantageous to your several Countries, that a Conclusion should be now put to this Session of Parliament.

The effectual Execution of the many useful Laws to which the Royal Assent hath been given, will greatly depend upon your Authority and Example: And I particularly recommend to you, to exert your utmost Influence, to enforce Obedience to the Act now pass'd, which provides against that Disgrace to Government, a tumultuary and violent Obstruction to the free Administration of publick Justice.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you Thanks in the King's Name for the Supplies, which you have granted with your usual Chearfulness and Unanimity. The Declarations, in your late Address to his Majesty, of your unfeigned Attachment to his Royal Person and Government, of your Gratitude for the Protection and Support received at all Times from the Crown of Great Britain, and of your Resolution to cultivate a good Understanding and Harmony between the two Kingdoms, cannot but be extremely acceptable to his Majesty, who will justly resent, as the Father of all his People, any Attempts to propagate Jealousies, or to disunite the Affections of his common Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The many obliging Expressions in your Addresses to me demand my repeated Thanks. Be assured, I will not fail to represent to his Majesty in the truest Light, the Loyalty and Duty of his People of Ireland. I have long endeavour'd upon all Occasions, to contribute to their Prosperity; and shall make it my constant Study to discharge the high Trust which his Majesty hath graciously reposed in me, by steadily pursuing those Measures, that may most effectually maintain the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and promote the inseparable Interest of his Majesty and his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom.
